7. [] - JMM) Met with Chairman Thomas Morgan, House Foreign Affairs Committee, and gave him material regarding Representative John Tunney's recent accusation concerning Agency involvement in Laotian opium traffic. I explained that the Director was concerned about this irresponsible and completely misleading story and wanted Chairman Morgan to know the full facts and, if appropriate, help us in setting the record straight. Morgan was responsive and said he would do what he could.

25X1

8. [] - JMM) Met with Representative Leslie Arends on the above matter who also was responsive. He remarked that an Agency briefing of the CIA Subcommittee of House Armed Services was overdue and he hoped one could be scheduled in the near future.
